

What is a Club Advisory? An advisory can be a past member of the Young Farmers club, willing and able to assist the Club in guidance and development, and is elected by the Members at the Annual General Meeting from year to year.

Advisory Members may attend any relevant meeting without being entitled to vote or become an Office Holder.

A Club Advisor can be an integral part of your Club; duties that an Advisory could offer:

- Guidance: When requested by the Chairperson Pre and/or Post Meeting to offer input on Items of business for the members to take on board.
- Supervision: Occasionally attending the Meetings and Events, at the request or invitation of the Chairperson.
- Provision of Continuity: Informing Members of the Club history and past events/activities and their outcomes.
- Meeting Emergencies: Lending assistance if called upon by the Club, if an emergency situation should arise.
- Financial Supervision: Assisting the club and helping them be successful at staying aware of the nature, extent, and pattern of expenditures and income.
- Organizational Records: Encouraging the officers to maintain adequate records and minutes of all club activities.
- Acting as a resource person for acquiring outside speakers and activities for the Club

In many ways, your Club Advisor serves as the guiding hand that assists the members of your club, they ultimately take a back seat on discussions. But help by pointing out new perspectives and directions, assisting in the development of insight into problems, Coaching individuals in their duties, and assisting in upholding the standards of the Club
